JOBS FOR PEACE AND RESILIENCE
Training Programme
Building peace. Fostering social cohesion. Generating jobs

The current global context calls for the international community to act in the face of increasingly complex crises, such as climate change, pandemics, armed conflict, forced displacement, irregular migration, trafficking in persons, radicalization, and terrorism.

ITCILo’s JPR Training Programme aims to strengthen the capacity of governments, social partners and relevant stakeholders to design and implement strategies to promote peace, prevent crisis, enable recovery and build resilience.
